UCare celebrates 7th year of accessible Target Field seating sponsorship with first pitch at Thursday, April 14, game

UCare makes more than 700 accessible seats available to people with disabilities, who use wheelchairs, or who have other special seating needs

WHEN: Thursday, April 14, 2016
First pitch: 12:10 p.m. from UCare rep; game follows

GAME: Minnesota Twins vs. Chicago White Sox

WHERE: Target Field
1 Twins Way
Minneapolis

DETAILS:

- For the 7th consecutive year, UCare is sponsoring more than 700 accessible seats at Target Field.

Accessible seating is available on all levels at Target Field. Designed to accommodate wheelchairs, the 700-plus spaces are available to anyone with special seating needs.

The ballpark has outstanding disability accommodations available in all aspects of the ball park experience: drop-off locations, assisted living devices, concessions, first aid/medical care, emergency evacuations, elevators and escalators, gate opening times, and more. A detailed summary of all accessibility features is available in the park's Access Guide.

- A UCare rep, Austen Xiong, will throw out the ceremonial first pitch to start the game at 12:10 p.m.
