UCare's Hilary Marden-Resnik receives Women in Business honor

Marden-Resnik selected by Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal for achievements, leadership, and community contributions

MINNEAPOLIS, April 20, 2016 — UCare's Hilary Marden-Resnik, Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, was selected by Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal as a Women in Business honoree for 2016.

The business publication states "this year's awards recognize 51 women, including one career achievement award honoree, for their professional achievements, leadership qualities and contributions to the broader Twin Cities community."

All winners will gather at the 19th Annual Women in Business Awards luncheon hosted by the Business Journal on Thursday, May 26, at The Renaissance Depot in Minneapolis.

Said UCare President and CEO Jim Eppel, "Hilary has been a remarkable leader at UCare during several years of tremendous growth and a difficult period of resizing. We are very proud that her skills, experience and trustworthy counsel are being recognized with a 2016 Women in Business Award, which I believe is richly deserved."

Marden-Resnik joined UCare in 2010 as Senior Vice President of Administration and was promoted to her current position in 2013. Marden-Resnik provides strategic oversight and executive leadership for UCare's Human Resources, Information Services, Provider Enrollment and Configuration, Project Management Office, Claims, Customer Services, and Provider Services and Operations. She also co-leads the health plan's strategic planning function.

Before joining UCare, Marden-Resnik had been Vice President of Human Resources at Hennepin County Medical Center in Minneapolis. Previous positions include Human Resources Director for HealthEast Care System, Associate Attorney in the Employment and Labor Law Group with Gray Plant Mooty Mooty & Bennett, and Human Resources Department Manager for Fairview Health Services.

She was recognized in 2007 as a Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal "40 Under Forty" accomplished professional. She is an active member of the Women's Health Leadership Trust and the Minnesota Women's Economic Security Roundtable. She currently serves on the board of AchieveMpls, a non-profit partner to the Minneapolis Public Schools and administrator of the STEP-UP youth employment program that places urban youth in summer internships at top Twin Cities companies.

Marden-Resnik earned her Juris Doctor Summa Cum Laude from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minn. She also holds a Master of Arts in Industrial Relations/Human Resources Management from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis and a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
